

Exclusive Wedding company for the Angsana Great Barrier Reef Chapel

South Pacific Bridal Cairns... ..The Most Beautiful Chapels In The World

When you perform over 650 weddings per year, you must not only have wonderful assets, but equally to complement these assets, you must have wonderful staff, together with a trusted group of very proven wedding suppliers.

Staff whose sole purpose is to ensure that every wedding they create, from the most simplistic to the most elaborate is individualised just for you, without compromise, with absolute sincerity, and most importantly, a very genuine affection to their clients.

South Pacific Bridal are so proud to have such a person in Gina Brennan, Gina was born and raised in Cairns, and has been the Principal Wedding Coordinator for SPB since its inception, she has planned and designed hundreds of wedding ceremonies, from all over the world, every one to perfection, without exception, and is now widely recognised as one of Australia's most successful and sort after wedding planners.

Gina receives dozens of thank you notes, however there is one comment that is regularly repeated, over and over, and that is, that on the day, surprisingly, the couple found they never worried about the proceedings because they knew Gina was there.

Gina now heads a wonderful team of wedding coordinators at South Pacific Bridal in Susan Hill and Danielle Diacos.

So when you have unmatched venues, with truly genuine professional staff, combined with loyal proven wedding suppliers, the most important day of your life will be as you have dreamed, and your stepping stones into life as a team could not have been scripted better.
