Bridal

The Alamanda Great Barrier Reef Chapel is the only purpose-built beachfront chapel in Australia. Situated within the grounds of the award-winning Alamanda Palm Cove by Lancemore resort, this chapel provides privacy and panoramic views over Palm Cove and the Coral Sea. This thoughtfully crafted chapel features natural materials and is adorned with beautiful fresh florals for your romantic ceremony. A personalised welcome board will greet your guests as they arrive at this stunning location.

Prefer to get married with the sand between your toes? Simply add on a stunning beachfront wedding package including arbour, seating & signage and keep the chapel as your inclement weather backup.

You will also have the opportunity to have a full rehearsal prior to your wedding day, with your wedding planner in attendance. Perfect to settle any pre-wedding jitters and amp up the excitement for your big day.

Choosing the right celebrant is incredibly important. In Cairns we have approximately 200 registered celebrants to choose from. Your wedding Planner will match you up with the perfect celebrant - someone who will create a bespoke ceremony that is everything you dreamed of. Whether you're wanting a quick "I Do", or would prefer to savour the moment and share the special story of your love, we know the right people for the job.

Your celebrant will work with you to create a tailored ceremony, present it beautifully on your wedding day and lodge all the legal paperwork required.
